Baptist Hospital proposes $38.7-million ambulatory surgery building

RALEIGH – North Carolina Baptist Hospital has filed an application with the Certificate of Need Section of the N.C. Division of Health Service Regulation to construct a $38.7-million ambulatory surgery building.

A public hearing for this project will be held at 11 a.m. on March 8, in the auditorium of Forsyth County Public Library, Central Branch, 660 West 5th St., Winston-Salem.

The project includes the construction of an ambulatory surgery building with eight operating rooms, two procedure rooms, a simulation operating room, and a robotic surgery training room.

Anyone may file written comments concerning this proposal. Comments must be received by the Certificate of Need Section no later than March 3 at the following address:
