PUBLIC NOTICE

Two Applicants Compete for Brunswick County Operating Room

RALEIGH – Two applicants have filed competing Certificate of Need applications with the N. C. Department of Health and Human Services to develop one operating room (OR) in response to the need determination for ORs Brunswick County in the 2016 State Medical Facilities Plan.

The two proposals are as follows:

- Brunswick Surgery Center proposes to develop a new ambulatory surgery center (ASC) with one OR and two procedure rooms in Leland. The project is expected to cost $4.2 million and be complete in Jan. 2019.
- Novant Health Brunswick Outpatient Surgery proposes to develop a new ASC in Leland by relocating one OR from Novant Health Brunswick Medical Center and adding one new OR. The project is expected to cost $14.1 million and be complete in Jan. 2019.

A public hearing for this project will be held Jan. 20 at 11 a.m. in the Virginia Williamson Event Center, Brunswick Community College, 50 College Road, Bolivia.

Anyone may file written comments concerning this proposal. Comments must be received by the Healthcare Planning and Certificate of Need Section no later than 5:30 p.m. on Jan. 3, 2017.

Comments may be submitted as an attachment to an email and sent to: DHSR.CON.Comments@dhhs.nc.gov. Comments may also be mailed to the following address:
