Subject: Questions about radiation rules from NC Veterinary Medical Association

Ms. Pfeiffer:

I am the attorney and lobbyist for the NC Veterinary Medical Association. Veterinarians are regulated for radiation under the Healing Arts section of the rules, as I understand it. I am trying to confirm that the proposed rules published in the May 1, 2015 issue of the NC Register affect veterinarians or not. I would welcome your call and or a reply to this email. Thanks for your assistance. Jon Carr

Subject: Question regarding .0800 Rules

Mr. Carr,

Thank you so much for your question.

These rules amendments will not affect most Veterinary facilities, however, the changes may impact Veterinarians that conduct research. An example would be in a University setting.
