

Skill #2: Alcohol-based Hand Rub

Student Name _____

| Steps                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Performed Correctly? |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|----|
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Yes                  | No |
| 1. Apply alcohol-based hand rub to a cupped hand                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                      |    |
| 2. Rub all surfaces of the hands and wrists, using friction, until dry (at least 15 seconds), including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Palms</li> <li>• Backs of hands</li> <li>• Wrists</li> <li>• Fingers, thumbs, and under nails</li> </ul> |                      |    |

☐ Pass ☐ Redo

Comments:

_____
Evaluator Name/Credentials

_____
Date