Exempt from Review – Physician Office
Provider: NC Med Holdings, LLC
Project Description: Develop a physician office building in Greenville
County: Pitt

Dear Ms. Scott:

In response to your letters of September 26, 2013 and July 25, 2013, the above referenced proposal is exempt from certificate of need review in accordance with N.C.G.S 131E-184(a)(9). Therefore, you may proceed to offer, develop or establish the above referenced project without a certificate of need.

However, you need to contact the Construction and the Acute and Home Care Licensure and Certification Sections of the Division of Health Service Regulation to determine if they have any requirements for development of the proposed physician office.

It should be noted that this Agency’s position is based solely on the facts represented by you and that any change in facts as represented would require further consideration by this Agency and a separate determination. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact this office.

Sincerely,

RE: Notice of Development of Exempt Physician Office Building in Greenville, Pitt County

Dear Mr. Smith and Ms. Frisone:

I am writing on behalf of our firm's client, NC Med Holdings, LLC (NC Med), to provide the Certificate of Need Section notice that, pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 131E-184(a)(9), NC Med plans to develop a physician office building at 990 Johns Hopkins Drive, Greenville, NC 27834. NC Med recently acquired a 1.19 acre parcel including an existing two-story office building at this location. The office building is valued at approximately $678,000. NC Med plans to renovate the existing building to develop a physician office building. No new institutional health service, as defined in N.C. Gen. Stat. 131E-175(16)(b), will be offered or developed in the physician office building without first obtaining appropriate certificate of need approval.

The planned renovations of the existing office building include: general upgrades and improvements to bring the building up to modern building codes and standards, including installation of an elevator; upgrading electrical service as required for the elevator circuitry; installation of security and automation systems; modifying the interior floor plan to improve patient privacy and flow on the first floor; and conversion of 1,050 square feet of unfinished garage space into finished office space. The total cost of the planned renovations is estimated to be approximately $600,000.

The renovated physician office building will include approximately 9,500 square feet total. NC Med plans to lease all of the space within the building to a radiology physician practice, Carolina Breast Imaging, LLC (Carolina Breast Imaging) which will use the first floor of the building (approximately 5,543 square feet) for operation of that medical practice including professional, administrative, imaging and ancillary services. At this time, there are no specific plans for use of the second floor of the building.

The Certificate of Need Law provides that upon receiving prior written notice, the CON Section shall exempt from certificate of need review a proposal "to develop or acquire a physician office building regardless of cost, unless a new institutional health service other than defined in G.S. 131E-175(16)b is offered or developed in the building." N.C. Gen. Stat. § 131E-184(a)(9). This provision exempts from CON review any activities or costs associated with the development or acquisition of a physician office building, regardless of cost, so long as no new institutional health service (other than a capital expenditure exceeding $2,000,000) is to be offered or developed in the building.
The information presented above establishes that NC Med's planned development of a physician office building at 990 Johns Hopkins Drive, Greenville, NC 27834 should be exempt from CON review under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 131E-184(a)(9). We request your confirmation of this exemption and thank you in advance for your prompt consideration of this request.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need any additional information or have any questions regarding this matter.

With best regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Pamela A. Scott
