HANDOUT #3

Patient-centered care principles and thinking

NCDHHSiDHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

11

Principles of Person-Centered Care (1)

- 1. Get to know each patient
- 2. Appreciate and honor each patient's lifelong pattern by responding to the preferences and needs of each patient

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 20

Principles of Person-Centered Care (2)

3. Always remember that you are providing care in the home of the patient; all staff are visitors, and the patient is in control of his or her own care and environment

13

Principles of Person-Centered Care (3)

4. Recognize that each patient can and does make a difference

5. Respond to each patient's spirit, as well as mind and body

14

Principles of Person-Centered Care (4)

6. Promote a healthy spirit by fostering fun and good humor

7. Respect others just as you would like to be respected

Principles of Person-Centered Care (5)

8. Make it possible for each patient to have a satisfying life

9. Speak up for the needs and desires of each patient

16

Principles of Person-Centered Care (6)

- 10. Realize that all patients are entitled to make their own decisions about their lives
- 11. Encourage the patient to participate actively in the planning of his or her daily care

17

HANDOUT/ACTIVITY #4 Key Values and Principles

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 202

Key Value and Principle #1

Treating individuals and family members with dignity and respect

Example...

Asking the person how he or she would like to be addressed: Mr. Smith or John

ICDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

19

Key Value and Principle #2

Helping individuals and families become empowered to set and reach their personal goals

Example...

Providing encouragement and praise throughout the day; involving the patient in daily activities so they continue to feel in control of their life and care

20

Key Value and Principle #3

Recognizing the right of individuals to make informed choices and take responsibility for those choices and related risks

Example...

If a patient is diabetic and chooses to eat pie on a regular basis, it is our job to inform them of the related risk, but we cannot take away their right to make decisions, even though we may not agree with them

CDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

Key Value and Principle #4

Building on the strengths, gifts, talents, skills, and contributions of the individual and those who know and care about the individual

Example...

If a patient was a retired fabric designer, ask the patient if he or she still enjoys art activities and participate in those activities with the patient

22

Key Value and Principle #5

Fostering community connections in which individuals can develop relationships, learn, work/produce income, actively participate in community life and achieve their full potential

Example...

Encourage socialization with friends, family, church, etc.; socialization is an important factor in preventing depression in the elderly

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

23

Key Value and Principle #6

Promising to listen and to act on what the individual communicates

Example...

Make eye contact with the patient, listen while not being distracted, repeat what the patient says, and communicate with the supervisor to ensure that the home care aide and agency are meeting the person's needs

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 202

Key Value and Principle #7

Pledging to be honest when trying to balance what is important to and important for the person

Example...

Trust is earned by honesty; display honesty and integrity in every aspect of your job

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

25

Key Value and Principle #8

Seeking to understand individuals in the context of their age, gender, culture, ethnicity, belief system, social and income status, education, family, and any other factors that make them unique

Example...

Become more knowledgeable of diversity and age-appropriate care and seek guidance from your supervisor when needed; get to know the person and customize care to the individual

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

26

Key Value and Principle #9

Acknowledging and valuing families and others important to the patient and supporting their efforts to assist other family members

Example...

Talk with family and others important to the patient and show that you value their role with the patient and their role within the family unit; show respect with your interactions

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

Key Value and Principle #10

Recognizing and supporting mutually respectful partnerships among individuals, their families, communities, providers and professionals

Example...

Tell the patient that you recognize the relationships that are meaningful to the person and show respect for those relationships

CDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

28

Key Value and Principle #11

Advocating for laws, rules, and procedures for providing services, treatment, and supports that meet the needs of an individual and honor personal goals

Example...

Keep your supervisor aware of changes with the patient and increasing needs; work on behalf of your patient to ensure those needs are met

NCDHHS/DHSR/HCPEC | Module 4 Person-Centered Care | July 2021

29

Key Value and Principle #12

Endorsing responsible use of public resources to assure that qualified individuals are served fairly and according to need

Example...

Report needs to your supervisor – the patient may need a resource such as Meals on Wheels; referrals can be made by your supervisor on behalf of your patient
