Review on 11/19/18 of a Plan Of Protection dated 11/16/18 written by the Executive Director revealed: "[Staff #1] will be required to re-take NCI training to ensure his ability to perform techniques properly. I, as the Executive Director will ensure that this training is complete."  The Licensee was required to consider the criminal records of persons being evaluated for hire and how convictions related to the suitability of the applicant/employee for work with adolescent clients in a psychiatric setting. The licensee failed to put systems in place to safeguard clients when relevant offenses, such as Staff #1 si murder conviction are part of the criminal history check. The licensee was unable to verbalize any considerations as to how hiring decisions are made and was unable to describe a hiring process that included the requisite checks and balances to ensure client safety and employee suitability. In addition, the ED failed to conduct a thorough internal investigation after an allegation of abuse against Staff #1 and failed to follow the process for board review of all restrictive interventions. The ED reviewed the videotape of the incident and confirmed it was an | IDENTIFICATION NUMBER   A BUILDING: |  |
