Observations at 4:35 PM revealed client #5 to briefly get out of the chair and dance for approximately one minute, and go the bathroom, and then return to the chair in the living area. Continued observations at 4:50 PM revealed client #5 to listen to a relative talk to him on the phone for approximately five minutes and then a staff member was observed verbally prompting the client back to the chair where the client was observed to occasionally glance at the TV and otherwise look around the room. At 5:05 PM client #5, again got up from the chair and approached a staff member who verbally and gesturally directed the client back to the chair. Client #5 remained in the chair un-occupied until staff verbally and physically prompted the client to wash his hands and go to the dinner table. In total, client #5 was noted to spend 90 of 105 observed minutes on 11/26/18 sitting in a chair listening to music or un-occupied. Record review for client # 5 on 11/27/18 revealed a person centered plan (PCP) dated 6/11/18. Review of the current program objectives for the client revealed 5 programs including a communication program and a place setting program. Continued review of the PCP revealed a statement indicating he "really likes to stay busy" as well as "really loves to play music, especially on drums, tambourines, horns , pianos and maracas". Further review of the record revealed a behavior support program dated 7/11/18 which included a "Prevention/Rules for Interactions" section which indicated that staff should ensure client #5 receives a variety of leisure items.	W 249	W249 C.) The Habilitation Specialist will retrain the staff on client #5 current dining program to set place at the table. The implementation of the dining program will be monitored by the clinical team completing 2 interaction assessments per week for the period of 1 month and then on a routine basis. In the future, the QIDP will ensure Habilitation programs are implemented as written.	By:1/26/19
