Passionate Care corrected and identified procedures according to State rules and Group home policies based on the findings 08/13/2021 to maintain compliance in noted areas. Plan of protection was followed as written and being followed through by the facility within the time specified.

V118: Administrator contacted the Pharmacy about the topical medication Clindamycin ph. 1% ointment for Client #1. Pharmacy revealed they made a mistake placing the order on the MAR and it should have been discontinued per doctor's orders. Doctor was contacted and the medication has been discontinued. Medication was sent back to the Pharmacy to be disposed of. All staff including House supervisor were in serviced on 08/17/2021 assuring all medication is current and not expired due to recently having a medication class. Any further violation will lead discipline or termination.

V119: Administrator contacted the Pharmacy about the topical medication Clindamycin ph. 1% ointment for Client #1. Pharmacy revealed they made a mistake placing the order on the MAR and it should have been discontinued per doctor's orders in May. Doctor was contacted and the medication has been discontinued. Medication was sent back to the Pharmacy to be disposed of. All staff including House supervisor were in serviced on 08/17/2021 assuring all Doctors orders are communicated and documented accordingly, due to recently having a medication class. Any further violation will lead discipline or termination.

V536: QP and Administrator contacted several NCI + instructors to inquire on scheduling and availability. The instructor was booked throughout September and would not have availability until October. A class was scheduled with Mrs. C. Oshow on 10/08/2021 for NCI Part A&B to updated skills relative to engaging the least restrictive interventions with the clients in the home. All group home staff and the Administrator will attend. Two other instructors were identified to plan prior to NCI expiration to prevent future lapses in training based on their scheduling.
