Based on staff interview, record review and document review, the facility failed to implement policies and procedures to prevent neglect by not ensuring procedures to assure client safety for 1 of 1 sampled client (#2). The finding is:

Review on 10/19/21 of an internal inquiry dated 10/13/21 and completed 10/14/21 revealed the qualified intellectual disabilities professional (QIDP) to inquire about an allegation reported by the guardian of client #2. Continued review of the QIDP's inquiry revealed on 10/13/21 the guardian of client #2 contacted the QIDP and reported that client #2 had alleged staff A had pushed the client. Further review of the internal inquiry revealed the QIDP to interview staff A and staff B only.

Review of the interview by the QIDP with staff A on 10/13/21 revealed on 10/12/21 client #2 engaged in a verbal altercation with another client and staff A intervened and placed her hand on client #2's shoulder and requested the client to calm down. Interview with staff A also revealed client #2 reported to staff B that staff A had pushed her; Staff A asked client #2 why she told staff B that she was pushed and client #2 apologized and said she would do better. Review of the interview by the QIDP with staff B on 10/13/21 revealed the staff to report she was in the medication room and did not see any interaction between staff A and client #2 relative to the allegation of client #2.

Further review of the internal inquiry revealed no additional staff interviews, no interview with client #2, no body check or evaluation by nursing services of client #2, no protection of clients with removal of any staff during the inquiry and no recommended actions relative to staff based on findings from the internal inquiry.

Review of records for client #2 revealed a diagnosis history of moderate intellectual disability and chronic anxiety. Continued review of records for client #2 revealed a habilitation plan dated 3/22/21 with a behavior support plan for target behaviors of crying, skin picking and food stuffing.

Interview with client #2 on 10/19/21 at the group home revealed the client to report last week staff A had pushed her on her back and closed her door "loud". Continued interview with client #2 revealed she had reported the incident to her sister and to her guardian. Further interview with client #2 revealed the client to allege staff A had also pushed client #1 on the back. Subsequent interview with client #2 revealed the client to state "staff B gets mad at me and won't let me lay on my bed. If I lay down she tells me to get up". It should be noted client #2 was unable to provide a timeframe with allegations other than "last week".

Interview with staff C on 10/19/21 at the group home revealed staff to report during the previous week, when she came to work client #2 was crying in her bedroom and reported staff A would not let her load the dishwasher and "I hope she gets fired". Continued interview with staff C revealed the staff to report client #2 was upset and also reported other information that she could not understand. Subsequent interview with staff C revealed she did not report concerns about client #2's report to administration because she was not sure what client #2 was really upset about. Staff C further revealed it is common for client #2 to get upset with redirection although she had never experienced the client to make statements such as "I hope she gets fired".

Review of the facility abuse, neglect and exploitation policies and procedures on 10/19/21 revealed the definition of "neglect" included the statement "failure to provide services and supports necessary to protect a person from serious physical and/or psychological harm". Continued review of the facility abuse, neglect and exploitation policies and procedures revealed a section specific to investigations (102.058). Review of investigation procedures revealed the investigator will determine if the staff member alleged to have committed the act of abuse should be suspended immediately for the duration of the investigation, or if clinical supervision is needed in lieu of suspension, and take appropriate action to assure the safey of the people involved.

Interview with the QIDP on 10/19/21 verified she had not interviewed client #2 during the 10/13/21 inquiry as she did not think about it. Interview with the QIDP also verified client #2 was the only verbal client in the group home and did not have a history of making false statements, telling untruths or reporting false allegations against staff. Continued interview with the QIDP revealed she had only interviewed staff A and B during the inquiry as they were the only staff on shift at the time of the reported allegation by client #2. Interview with the QIDP also verified behavior reports, incident reports nor any other documentation had not been used to conduct the inquiry into client #2's allegation against staff A.

Further interview with the QIDP verified there had been no body check of client #2 after the alleged Subsequent interview with the QIDP verified with the conclusion of the internal inquiry the only recommended action was to support client #2 with a psych appointment to discuss coping skills with frustrations due to the client making reports to her sister that result in complaints to the guardian. Interview with the facility administrator on 10/19/21 revealed an inquiry is usually conducted with an allegation to determine if a more formal investigation is needed. Continued interview with the facility administrator revealed a formal investigation had not been conducted with client #2's allegation as the findings from the inquiry had not determined an investigation to be necessary. Interview with the facility administrator further verified she was unaware of the lack of thoroughness conducted with the initial inquiry and a formal investigation should have been conducted to ensure client protections from abuse.
